YMCA GEELONG MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

INTRODUCTION

Are you involved with the YMCA as a volunteer, member, a participant in programs; (member at a Y managed facility, recreation, youth services and camping programs), or just interested in the Y? If so, you are welcome to join the YMCA as a member and make a difference to the community.

As one of Geelong's longest serving charitable community organisations, the YMCA Geelong Inc. has been involved in supporting communities for more than 60 years. Our members are committed to ensuring our vision that with the Y everyone can be healthier, happier and connected to their community.

The YMCA's purpose is to provide opportunities for all people to grow in body, mind and spirit.

The YMCA is a member based organisation made up of people passionate about making a difference to people, families and communities. Being a member is an expression of your commitment to our work of building strong people, families and communities.

Being a YMCA member is much more than joining your YMCA program. YMCA membership does not entitle a person to access facilities or programs, but reaffirms your commitment to community development and strengthen the connection to local communities to increase access and equity to a healthy lifestyle. YMCA Geelong Inc. are Incorporated Associations that are committed to the Mission of the YMCA. This being "The YMCA works from a base of Christian values, to promote opportunities for all people to grow in body, mind and spirit"

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

We have one membership category:
